

Public Meeting Announcement

WORKSHOP ON DRAFT DATA GUIDELINES

The Office of Energy Infrastructure Safety (Energy Safety) recently published draft Data Guidelines. Energy Safety will host a public workshop on October 31, 2022, to take public comments on the documents below:

- Draft Data Guidelines (published October 14, 2022)¹
- Draft Template Geodatabase²
- Draft QDR Wildfire Mitigation Data Tables 1-13 template³
- Wildfire Mitigation Plan (WMP) Performance Metrics⁴

Energy Safety invites members of the public, stakeholders, and local and regional agencies, boards, tribes, and commissions to participate in the workshop.

Public Questions and Comments

Energy Safety will take public questions and comments during the workshop. To ensure Energy Safety will be able to provide thorough responses to questions, the electrical corporations and the public are encouraged to submit questions in advance of the workshop. Questions may be submitted to data@energysafety.ca.gov by Thursday, October 27, 2022.

Energy Safety will also be accepting written comments on the Draft Data Guidelines documents. The requirements and deadlines for written comments for each of the published documents are established in the respective cover letter above.
